

FLOWERS AFTER 5

2019 LINEUP

JUNE 6: River City Party Band performs music from subtle cocktail music and classic swing to Motown, Beach, and today's dance music. With strong vocals and a solid groove the River City Party Band is known for its ability to please both young and old. Make no mistake; the River City Party Band is NOT a rock band but a musically versatile group that possesses the unique ability to emulate many styles of music for many styles of people.

JUNE 13: Colonial Seafood is a band from Fredericksburg, Va whose sound can be described as power ukulele-driven alternative Americana. Started by Larry Hinkle as a vehicle to promote his handmade Ukuleles, the band has had a number of ringers through the lineup, all while Larry plays ukulele.

JUNE 20: The Original Elbe-Musikanten German Band will play the traditional style of German, Austrian, Czech and Slovak music such as polkas, marches, waltzes as well as other favorites.

JUNE 27: Center Stage Band is a group of seven talented musicians and vocalists. They play a large variety of music ranging from Motown, R&B, Oldies, Soul, Rock and Top 40. The experience and deep-rooted love for music and entertaining from each of their members has generated a loyal following of fans. You will be guaranteed a night of first class entertainment from Center Stage!

JULY 11: Triple Crossing Jazz Project specializes in swingin' classic Jazz from the 30's-60's. Classic Standards as light instrumental background music or featured entertainment with our talented female vocalist!

JULY 18: Premiere Band is a high energy variety band based out of Richmond, Va. Premiere plays a wide variety of music: Motown/Soul, today's hottest hits, Classic Rock, 80's, country, 50's, 60's 70's, 80's, 90's, and jazz.

JULY 25: The Adrian Duke Project combines critically acclaimed musicianship with a vast repertoire of music ranging from The Beatles, Van Morrison and Elton John to Marvin Gaye and Ray Charles to Duke Ellington and Frank Sinatra

AUGUST 1: The Significant Others is a rock band that serves up a potent party cocktail through inventive arrangements, tight medleys, and danceable grooves. Theirs is a rare chemistry that blends an eclectic list of songs, a love of playing music with each other, and a healthy pour of incredible live energy. The mix is strong, one that unifies both band and crowd in a single common cause: getting people up for getting down. This five-piece brotherhood brings a powerful and positive energy to every event. They play the old stuff, the new stuff, and everything in between.

AUGUST 8: Antique Melody Show is a nostalgic matinee of 1920s, 30s and 40s radio stars such as Annette Hanshaw, Mae West, Fats Waller, Eartha Kitt and Jo Stafford - just to name a few. Sprinkle in some Squirrel Nut Zippers, Postmodern Jukebox and other roots jazz contemporaries and you've got a confection of romantic popular / jazz standards, Tin Pan Alley, ragtime and Broadway show tunes coming at you from their unique style of stripped down arrangements. AMS additionally lauds a growing collection of resonant original songs evocative of the same era. This band features Marilyn Brown on vocals, Artie Mayer on guitar, Andrew McCarty on piano & trombone, Allen Cole on clarinet, Kassia Arbabi on violin and Eric Meyer on upright bass. If you're looking for jazz in Richmond, AMS delivers it in a vintage, pure, speakeasy package that is simply the sweeter side of swing.

AUGUST 15: Whiskey Rebellion- Drawing on their diverse musical backgrounds, The Whiskey Rebellion mix the spontaneity of bluegrass, the collectiveness of jazz, and the urgency of rock and roll to create their own unique take on everything from traditional bluegrass to anthemic party favorites. The band covers a wide array of artists ranging from The Beatles to The Talking Heads to Guns 'n' Roses, but their approach is always steeped in their acoustic roots and uniquely lends itself to being both listenable and danceable.

AUGUST 22: Bruce Ewan, “The Red Harmonica King” – featuring Jazz & Blues guitar sensation Randy Johnston. These internationally renowned artist Bruce & Randy Johnston will be performing a mix of blues and jazz. Bass guitarist Steve Shaw and drummer Todd Woodson will join them for a great evening of music!

AUGUST 29: The Jangling Reinharts mix popular cover songs from the 60s, 70s, 80s, and 90s (along with the occasional TV theme song...just to see who's listening). Beautiful vocal harmonies, superb finger-style on the lead guitar, and a knack for playing the right song at the right time set The Jangling Reinharts apart from the rest.

SEPTEMBER 5: The Bellevue Rhythmaires is a versatile acoustic band that packs a party punch; The Bellevue Rhythmaires delight any crowd with a down-home sound that's down-right awesome. Never too loud but always so good, this charming and fun group can tailor a set and instrumentation that appeals even to the most particular partygoers, adding their own blend of class to the classics.

SEPTEMBER 12: Ban Caribe is an exciting blend of Afro-Cuban, Latin, Caribbean and Soulful Rhythm and Blues, all held together with pulsating percussion. The musical compositions and arrangements are spiritually inspired by the rhythmic beats and chants of African music.
