

STORY TIME RESOURCES

NOT A BUZZ TO BE FOUND

STORY TIME DESCRIPTION

Winter is here and where are all the insects? Where do they go when it gets too cold for them? Let's explore the secret world of insects in our story today Not a Buzz to Be Found \(Insects in Winter\) by Linda Glaser. We'll discover how honeybees huddle in their hive, ants stay warm underground, and monarch butterflies fly thousands of miles to warmer places. After the story grab your coat, hat and gloves and head outside for a winter bug hunt!
